Plan to Denounce the C.N.
Shops Co-operative Scheme Fail

Charging that members of the Communist party through local organizations were submitting resolutions calculated to bring about the disruption of the Trades and Labor Congress, and that they were attempting to use that body for the spreading of its propaganda throughout Canada, R. C. McCutchan of Winnipeg, moved the deletion from the records of the Trades and Labor Congress convention of a resolution for the abolition of the co-operative system in C.N.R. shops brought down by the West Edmonton Brotherhood of Railway Carmen of America. Mr. McCutchan's motion was adopted.

Mr. McCutchan argued that members of the associations interested were capable of taking care of their own affairs without the interference of a group of Communists who represented only a very small section of the members employed in the industry affected by the results. Then he considered that it was an imposition that a local lodge should bring a resolution of such far-reaching effect before the congress.

The Buck-Tenants' Committee, which is in support of the McGuchan motion, asserted that it was another instance of the stupendous egoism of a certain class in attempt to lead the railway shopworkers of Canada.

The Buck-Tenants' Committee stated frankly that the resolution emanated from the Communist party and claimed that the trade unions were not obtaining any wage benefits to offset the lay-offs that had occurred on the railways. He asserted that any wage increases

Several delegates from shop-workers' unions took up the fight and stated that as a body the men

HELEN WILLS MAKES FINE START TO REGAIN TENNIS SUPREMACY

Wins Opening Match With Ease—Ace of British Invading Forces Forced to Default in Singles—Favorites Come Through

FOREST HILLS, N.Y., Aug. 23.—Flashing the brilliant brand of tennis that has carried her along in an unbroken stretch of victory so far this season, Miss Helen Wills started impressively Monday in her battle to regain the United States women's tennis championship.

Making her first appearance in the national tournament since she won the three-year reign in 1925, Miss Wills defeated Miss Josephine Crookshank, California, Friday, 6-1, in the first round.

Facing the unexpected withdrawal of Miss Kitty McKean, Crookshank, the fourth seed, was the only British contender advanced without difficulty, as did Miss Koss, Boston, the hard-driving Dutch champion, and Miss Mallory, the present champion.

Miss Helen Jacobs, Miss Eleanor Goss, Miss Penelope and Miss Charlotte Hunter Chapin.

Threat of appendicitis on top of competition, however, forced Miss Crookshank to default in her first round match with Mrs. Arthur M. Dupon of Brooklyn, N.Y.

Miss Crookshank, however, will play in the doubles, starting with Miss E. H. Harvey as her partner.

Of the other invading stars, Miss Helen Jacobs, Boston, and Miss Eleanor Goss, Boston, gave the best exhibition.

BULLS EVEN BASEBALL SERIES BY SETTING BACK CUBS 5-1

Senior City Honors Again Placed in Lap of Gods—Alva Carruthers Hurls Northenders To Victory Over Patterson and Hall.

Bulls handed the Cubs a 5 to 1 setback at Boyle street diamond, and as a result they went into a tie with two games each in the series to decide the championship of the Senior Baseball League.

The game was a thriller from start to finish and there were plenty of exciting incidents thrown in to give the fans a lot of thrills. The winners were well paid for their victory, having evenly balanced all through the game, and while they were charged with more errors than the Cubs, the seniors came in spite where they did not hurt.

Carruthers in Form
Alva Carruthers, who pitched for the Bulls and hurled a five second inning, bulls response, kept well satisfied, only walking one man. Patterson, who started on the hill for the Cubs, went back in the third, and the Bulls got him for four hits and as many runs. Patterson was in the inning and finished the game.

Most Embarrassing
The Bulls went on a hitting rampage in their half of the frame, collecting four runs which gave them the win, and driving young Patterson from the box. Singles by Phillips and Bobby Carruthers, and doubles by Hill and Bell accounted for the runs.

From then on the next three innings neither team scored the runs, but the Bulls again stepped out in the seventh, and drove in three more before the game was called on account of darkness.

BAMBINO LEADS GEHRIG BY ONE

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—The Indians and New York Yankees were tied in four games Monday by defeating the Yankees 3 to 4, at Cleveland for a clean sweep at the series.

Babe Ruth hit fourth home run of the season with none on in the sixth inning, taking a lead over Lou Gehrig in the race for home runs.

Clayton Kershaw, who relieved Walter Moore on the Yankee mound in the seventh inning, suffered a broken finger when J. Sewell's fourth hit of the game slammed off his left hand.

Detroit winning streak grew to 12 games, the Tigers defeating Washington at Detroit in both weeks in the double matinee, 4 to 1 and 7 to 3, then clinched the series with a 6 to 3 victory.

Whether he wins or loses in "The Tigers" when they meet again, Jack Dempsey says he will quit the fight game then.

BRAVES WIN THIRD STRAIGHT

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 23.—The Boston Braves won their third straight victory over the league-leading Chicago Cubs Tuesday by defeating them 5 to 3. The defeat on Chicago led over Pittsburgh to give the Braves a three-game winning streak.

Ed Bremer of Boston, set a new National League record when he played his 114th consecutive game. The previous record of 103 games was held by Fred Luderus of Philadelphia.

At Philadelphia, Chick Savary's home run into the bleachers gave the Phillies the lead of a hitting duel with the Braves. The Braves won the game by a score of 5 to 3.

No other games were scheduled.
